Although the order in our lives
Left some time ago
Along the way
We are the ones who never cry
Like we don't care
Today
Me at home and you out there
And on your way
It's gone so far and now it seems
It's only me
Who cares
I know it helps the times you asked
Though never gave
A little hope to set you free
Thus you stray
Although the order in our lives
We are the ones who never cry
Or so we're told
It's gone so far and now it seems
It's only me
Me at home and you out there
Along the way
Me at home and you out there
Along the way
Me at home and you out there
Along the way
