She gives me fear of the meaning,
I feel the distance growing between us.
She says she's running tired out of frustration,
And nothing else matters but my love,
My love, just my love.

I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, we're away this side of twilight.

I wait along where you left me,
Still feel the weight of your breath where you kissed
me,
You kissed me.
I don't want to feel like a failure that you see,
When you leave.
Just say that you believe in me,
Believe in me, believe in me.

I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, we're away this side of twilight.
I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.

She gives me fear of the meaning,
I feel the distance growing between us.
She says she's running tired out of frustration,
And nothing else matters but my love,
My love, just my love.

I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, we're away this side of twilight.
I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.
Yeah, yeah, I don't want to lose you to the light.
