I woke up this morning
Your pillowcase I holding
But I was only dreaming
It was you
I tried my best to let it go
Something wouldn't let me thought
I might have been pretending
But it's all I can do

I've tried wishing on stars
Closing my eyes so hard
Made deals, made vows
Tried screaming out

Oh, baby come home
Cause I can't go on without you here with me
Oh, baby come home
The pain gets to strong without you I'm too weak
But nothing I do
Brings you back to me

It's getting harder every single day
Always thinking that I see your face
I feel you're near, I hear your name everywhere I go
When I realize it's in my head
It breaks my heart once again
Takes some time before it sinks in
Then I lose control

So I'm done wishing on stars
Closing my eyes so hard
No deals, no more vows
I'm done screaming out

Oh, baby come home
Cause I can't go on without you here with me
Oh, baby come home
The pain gets to strong without you I'm too weak
Cause nothing I do
Brings you back

Time told me it will be alright

I'm not gonna lie
I'm losing this fight
And time told me she'll heal all my wounds
As deep as I'm cut no I'm not healing soon

Oh, baby come home
Cause I can't go on without you here with me
Oh, baby come home
The pain gets too strong without you I'm too weak
But nothing I do
Brings you back to me
