You see the new sensation
I heard it call your name
You're running 'round in circles
You're making right again

The telephone keeps ringing
Your head is in the sand
The future is unfolding
But it's not what you had planned

No matter what you do
There's no escape for you
You say they've gone too far
You said I'll take my car

So it always ends the same
And there's no one else to blame
But I'll die if you would call my name

Caught between two evils
I should've stayed at home
To wish upon, and hold the phone
When in love you want

No matter what you do
There's no escape for you
You say they've gone too far
You said I'll take my car

So it always ends the same
There's no one else to blame
But I'll die if you would call my name
Oh yes, I'll die if you would call my name

So I'm [Incomprehensible]
So don't play a game

No matter what you do
There's no escape for you
You say they've gone too far
You said I'll take my car

So it always ends the same
There's no one else to blame
But I'll die if you would call my name
Oh yes, I'll die if you would call my name
