There's been a long time since I had some fun
When our pressure kept me come undone

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun
We used to be the luminary ones
We used to be the luminary ones

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun
We used to be the luminary ones
We used to be the luminary ones

There's been a long time since I had some fun
When our pressure kept me come undone
Tied me down with hollow wires
And you placed my daylight in your light

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun
We used to be the luminary ones
We used to be the luminary ones

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun
We used to be the luminary ones
We used to be the luminary ones

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun

I just sit around and wait
I just sit around and wait to even feel something
To even feel something

I just sit around and wait
I just sit around and wait to even feel something
To even feel something

There's been a long time since I had some fun
There's been a long time since I had some fun

We used to be the luminary ones
The luminary ones
