Sometimes I wonder where I'd be
If I'd just done things differently
I want you to tell me what I'm worth,
I want you to make me feel alive,
Make me feel alive.

Since you've been around,
I've lost myself but now I've found
So afraid to come back down
Because I can see you're what I want, not what I need.

I feel this rooftop getting cold,
And all I wanted was control.
Is all this chivalry just my insurance policy?
And I am making those mistakes
We're sealing off our fate,
And doing this again and again and again.

Since you've been around,
I've lost myself but now I've found
So afraid to come back down
Because I can see you're what I want, not what I need.

I'll say this to you one last time,
Not on your terms but on mine.
I'll take another breath and see
That I am the only thing I need.

Since you've been around,
I've lost myself but now I've found
That I will never back down
Because I can see you're what I want, not what I need.
