Girl, arenâ€™t you so beautiful
You are so expensive
A million dollar
Always smile
Never be dull
Girl, arenâ€™t you so smiley?
I wish my pocket had some penny
Not so empty
Smileyâ€™s birthday
Less than diamond
Donâ€™t deserve any
I wish I could afford for this especial date
Youâ€™re quite precious
Beyond my pocket
So priceless
But, smiley girl,
If it is your choice
Would like your day to share
I have got good heart
Though it is not as big as yours
It truly could cover all the expenses
Because, for your big heart
My respect will always be intact

I know you are that much expensive
You might even have white wings
Who else?
Only God knows

Sweet girl,
Take off, switch on your engine
Take me to your place
That I only knew in my dream
Lead me to heaven
Make me an angel
In the infinite sky
In the wilder ocean
Letâ€™s sail sweetie
And swim
