Don't ever ask me to forget
The intellectual property when I say your name
I am so entranced through the future that we dance to
I'll dissipate out into space
No time to romance you so maybe I should be alone

(Have we come undone, like it's do or die?)
Whoever said I was falling in love?
(Did we ever become just you and I)
Who said I'm falling in love?

The desperate corners of your eyes
They bring the question of just who you are
Way down here it would appear that I'd fall
When you were sinking
The sun couldn't find you, I couldn't remind you there
When I was thinking I should be alone

As of tonight, I feel so lost
Yeah, as of tonight I feel so lost
As of tonight, As of tonight

(Have we come undone, like it's do or die?)
Whoever said I was falling in love?
(Did we ever become just you and I)
Who said I'm falling in love?

As of tonight, I feel so lost
As of tonight I feel so lost

Who said I'm falling in love?
