Settle down bout late afternoon
Take off my shirt baby, kick off my shoes and Settle down before I start to remember this

Day dream got my feet in the sand
Got a girl by my side put my heart
In her hand but I relise it might really not exist

If you move on though all this fustration,
Relise I'm in a little situation
Move on to bigger and better things
I don't know what you think yeah I can't remind

A pretty little lady
I think it's about time that
I let you know before I start to sing

But did you really think...
That I'd hold on now
To something that didn't want I
Don't know how
You could sit there and let this be
My hearts breaking and didn't fix me
It's just about my luck... Had to give me up
