All dressed up in red
She's a killer
Gonna knock 'em dead
With the finger on the trigger
But she don't tip-toe when she walks
And she don't whisper when she talks
Because she got it like that
Yea, she got it like that

The first time we met
I said excuse me miss
And then she pulled me close
And killed me with a kiss

She's a blonde haired, bombshell, long leg spider
Who's been working on her web all day
She's a blue eyed, smoking hot 6 feet shooter
Who's tryina make me obey

She's a killer, she's a killer
My baby is a killer, she's a killer
And someone's gonna die today

Do do do
Do do do
Do do doooo

She's a movie star
A late night thriller
Always leaves her mark
Like a cold blooded murder
She got lips like loaded guns
So we all die one by one
Because she got it like that
Yea she got it like that

The first time we met
I said excuse me miss
And then she pulled me close
And killed me with a kiss

She's a blonde haired, bombshell, long leg spider
Who's been working on her web all day
She's a blue eyed, smoking hot 6 feet shooter
Who's tryina make me obey

She's a killer, she's a killer
My baby is a killer, she's a killer
And someone's gonna die today

If you see her in the street
Look the other way
Cause she'll take your heart, rip it apart
And put it on display
She's got a filthy appetite
Don't get in her way
She's a crowd pleaser, a man eater
And always brings her parade

She's a blonde haired, bombshell, long leg spider
Who's been working on her web all day
She's a blue eyed, smoking hot 6 feet shooter
Who's tryina make me obey

She's a killer, she's a killer
My baby is a killer, she's a killer
And someone's gonna die today
