(Intro)

Yeah what up? Yall feel me on this. I've been under a spell. Yeah for the Past decade. It had a lot to do with the young Torres. All right. I'm about to let yall Know what I'm talking about.

(Verse)

It's like external sadness it's been apart of my life it's total madness ever Since I became the big brother of young Torres, I've endured double stress All that pain in my chest. Yes I have pains and regrets in my life and I mean young Torres He's almost a man but I can't forget the things that I did in the past. (Like What) Spending money like nickel and dimes just to make sure that he was fine. He manipulated me I tried to shut my eyes and I became blind that's right Yall. It was lying and after that it was lying was deceit and deceived me that's Why I don't have no reason to love this kid or help anyone anymore that's Just how I feel inside. (Damn)

(Chorus)

Curse of the young, curse of the young Torres
Curse of the young curse of the young Torr (3 times)

(Verse)

I've been reduced to living like a bum believe me yes I'm dark skin aint no Fun Just because I'm dark skin I end up working harder and harder just to be Large one day

I hope to own my own company and to be the man in charge of course. But in
The long run I gotta make it. No matter what people say
I can't fake it.
Yall feel me? My life is empty When young Torres came I thought it was Filled but it was lying the ability he took it away to love anybody. that's
Why now I feel like I'm all alone in this big cold hearted world. In this Place Hartford CT I gotta get away gotta get away.

(Break)

Life aint no game (3 times) aren't you ashamed.
Life aint no game (3 times) aren't you ashamed.

(Chorus)

Curse of the young, curse of the young Torres
Curse of the young curse of the young Torr (3 times)

(Verse)

External sadness has passed in my life and now my life is filled with total
Madness ever since I became the big brother of young Torres. I had to Endure double stress in my life. And pains in my chest, if ever ever I had Regrets was young Torres. he's almost a man but he forgot the things that I've done he forgot where he came from Spending nickel and dimes to make sure that he was doing fine. He Manipulated me and he lied I try to shut my eyes and I'm blind. it's lies
After lies deceit after deceit. I don't know I never kept any receipts that's Why the love inside me is gone. He took it away my ability to love somebody
Now heart so empty.

Life aint no game (3 times) aren't you ashamed.
Life aint no game (3 times) aren't you ashamed.
