(Intro)

Yeah...

(Verse)

At the age of five I had to struggle and fight just to stay alive

And the level of abuse was too much for a boy to handle; too much in my mind I'm confused

At ten a whole other level again a young teen don't know what life it means

At twenty a life in the city had many friends and I had a gang Travis, OJ, Adam and Frank and me

We all broke up in the end but to them I say thanks took the wrong path

(Chorus)

No more crying no more, my life I'm thankful for

(repeat twice) No more crying no more

(Verse)

Took the wrong path with Jose T and to this day the memories hunt me

Drive me crazy in my head in my mind I'm going blind.

On my own again yes for awhile

Gotta pinch myself to see if I'm alive, T if everything that I have been through was worth it

I think all in time it will come through and I know that I'm strong that's the way I am ya heard me

Because I don't understand why people look at me and they say that I'm crazy

Sometimes in my mind I'm lazy but I gotta pick up my boot straps and keep on moving on rock on

(Chorus)

No more crying no more, my life I'm thankful for

(repeat twice) No more crying no more

(Verse)

At the age of five I had to struggle and fight just to stay alive

And the level of abuse was too much for a boy in my mind I'm just so confused

At ten a whole other level again a young teen don't even know what life means

(Chorus)

No more crying no more, my life I'm thankful for (repeat twice) No more crying no more
