(Intro)

Now this is to all the elected officials in Washington DC Yall should be a damn shame of the job you're doing up there

(Chorus)

Politicians yall should be shamed killing America that's really lame
Sold your souls for the money & fame
I'm an activist and I'm naming names (repeat 2 times)

(Verse)

John McCain you brought shame to our country and your name should of let Sarah Palin loose but instead you decided to throw the towel in and call a truce

Speaker Boehner you're such a sell-out you're a loser
We had Obama on the ropes could of killed his so call Hope and change but you're part of the belt-way Republicrat and Democans you're all the same You have no shame have you no shame you will be judged
Sooner or later in my opinion you will feel the pain

(Chorus)

killing America that's really lame
Sold your souls for the money & fame
I'm an activist and I'm naming names (repeat 2 times)

I'm naming names
I'm naming names
Politicians yall should be shamed
Sold your souls for the money and fame

(Verse)

Barney Frank some role model that you are Parading around with your homosexual lover

We're a Christian nation that's forbidden Gay marriage is abomination If I was President I would refuse to let any of these things go through that's just me Vice President Biden calling law abiding citizens terrorists
Yet they tell us not to call those real terrorists that name
Tea party member we must stand up don't play there game Keep on fighting we shall over come cause God is watching
No matter what they try, no matter what they do Good will always conquer evil

(Chorus)

killing America that's really lame
Sold your souls for the money & fame
I'm an activist and I'm naming names (repeat 2 times)

(Verse)

John McCain you brought us shame to our country and your name
should of let Sarah Palin on the loose instead you chose
to throw the towel in and call a truce
Speaker Boehner you're such a sell-out loser We had Obama on the ropes but instead you chose to
