(Intro)

It be the realest emcee on the block Talking to yall about things you can relate to
And not that booty banging type Gun gang type shit you feel me
So just kick back and listen, yeah

(Verse)

Stuck in a dark place no time to waste
I can't let them find me, they want to violate me
Take away my rights they attack mostly at night
While I'm sleeping the evil spirits put up a fight
But God my creator has an angel to protect My spirit and soul until I dye from being old
The winter nights are so cold

(Chorus)

Though I try, I just can't move on (repeat 2 times)

(Verse)

Working my fingers to the bones, pretending I'm not alone
No one to call me on the phone, but I'm a Lone Warrior
And a Lone Warrior gots to do what a Lone warrior gots to do
Cause God give me the inner strength, inner strength stronger than super Glue

I may stumble but I know one thing I will never ever fall I wont quit cause I'm too legit to quit, I've got to complete my mission
I've got to complete my mission, if a few learn my lessens then

I will teach them and I consider that a job well done Yeah of course I like to have fun Turtle but for now I've got to Work (11 times) and can't stop because I've got to make it to

Where I gots to make it to you know what I'm saying

(Chorus)

Though I try I just can't move on

(Verse)
