(Intro)

Yall just didn't know yo Friendship is like a war.
Each day it's a struggle.
This is one battle I aint winning yall.
No matter what I do.

(Verse)

Lots of folks don't know the true meaning of friendship.
Trust and honest has been left for abandon ship.
How much times can I take this verbal assault on me.
Telling me you're gonna leave this Yahoo I'm to talk to Someone who is real. And that really hurt.
Trying to hurt me inside and I know that's not right.
I'm trying to understand your suffering and pain.
But all you do you wont let me in.
You can hate all you want, but I do know that I care and I
Love you. I'm human; you're pushing me away. You made Me angry so I logged off. You left me with no other choice.
So now I want you to listen to my voice. I'm not like this.
I don't know why you pushed me to this. it's beyond me.

(Break)

Yeah, lot of people just don't know the meaning of friendship.
And these online friendships, they hurt just as much as a Friendship in real life and blood and flesh. Yeah, I'm being real.

(Verse)

Online friendships they is real as day and night
And living and breathing trust me.
All these emotions are real. Different things inside of me.
I know that this sounds crazy. But the only difference from
An online friend and a real live friend. it's when you get angry

You can log off and be out. But the emotions and pain they are strong as Ever.

Yall trust me on this. Yes sometimes my online friends they drive me to Drink.

And think each fight they drive me crazy and crazy and crazy. I'm going

Really

Nuts in my mind in my brains. that's why sometimes these things just make me

Say damn.

Why me, why me. Yeah why me.

(Break)

Why me yall?

What have I done to deserve all this grief.

Damn

It's a battle, a jungle out there.

And I'm going under deep.

(Verse)

Do unto others as you want them to do unto you.

When I was fasting you had an attitude.

Trying to be nice, and you told me that I was fake.

Now when I have to get angry. When I got angry

You didn't like it. And I got mad and it was too late.

And I logged off cause you cussed me out. How much

Of this can I take? I'm human. I couldnt take no more

Of your nonsense.

That is why love gets complicated. Now you're telling
me

That you feel hate. Well words they hurt and they can abuse

Me R.E.H.D.O. double G. but

(Break)

I don't know.

(Verse)

I don't wanna take this no more. The pressure is hot yes, damn.

I don't wanna take this no more. The pressure is hot cause a lot of

Folks out there don't know the new meaning of friendship.

That's why I gotta go and

(Fade to Break)
