(Intro)

Now this one is going out to all my internet friends, past friends
You see I'm the man, when I give you my word on something
I keep my word, but a lot of yall folks especially yall internet
Friends and collaborators, yall say yall gonna do something
Then you just diss me and leave me hanging, but it's all right
Cause I'm a longer ya heard me?

(Verse)

I sit and I wonder is this the end for me, life is been a mystery
Been a mystery, surrounded by folks who hurt me they wanna kill me
Some even wanna inflict deadly force upon me Pray for the God for guidance to guide me, but it's okay, cause
I love the G.O.D. ya heard?

(Chours)

Time is fading, Time is fading, Time is fading away from me. (repeat twice)

(Verse)

Many enemies wanna try to kill me, remember my enemies at one time or Another, they use to love me now they hate me. They use to care for me.
Now I'm gonna go out on a limb and say some of them even stalking me
I'm not gonna call any name, my life is so damn empty.

(Chours)

Time is fading, Time is fading, Time is fading away
from me. (repeat twice)

(Verse)

I search for answers I look from the past, in the far end there's no answers
To my questions, though I'm struggling dying inside I bleed I must go Through
This pain believe me before I can find any happiness. I look from a far to See the ones
That I love. Hopefully that they're happy but I sing...

(Chorus)

Time is fading, Time is fading, Time is fading away
from me. (repeat twice)

(Verse)

Internet friends they let me down, they let me down, yeah they talk a good Game
They say that there gonna do this do that? No better than the friends of The past.
Cause all of them they look at me they think that I'm stupid like I'm a Stupid Ass
I'm no Ass I always keep my promises. Dag

(Chorus)

Time is fading, Time is fading, Time is fading away
from me. (repeat twice)
