(Intro)

Yeah get ready for change America
But not in a good way
There will be stormy days and wars abroad
And high energy, yall don't believe me?
Wait and see

(Verse)

What change Obama gonna bring To the Whitehouse?
Being black is the only change he brings?
It's the same ole same ole same old from the past Look at his new administration, can you tell me if there's Anyone new of change? I don't think so.
He will bring this country far left as he can.
Him and Harry Reid and Nancy Pelosi the witch And we all know that America is filled with conservatives
Not God bless America, but like Rev. Wright said for voting
For this leftist radical Americans get ready the battle is very long

(Chorus)

What change other than being black, what change other than beinng (4 Times)

(Verse)

And it don't matter what the people of the world may say
Capitalism is not the problem but Obama will damn sure
Make socialism the problem just you wait America Just you wait your electrical bills will go sky high
He wants to bankrupt the coal industry that will costs Millions to lose their jobs, and yall voted for this radical Nut job yall must be sick in the head indeed
And yall believe that he will bleed your pockets dry
You fools wanted to vote for this radical nut This big eared little man child, yall will learn soon that this man is Radical

He's too wild

(Chorus)

What change other than being black, what change
other than beinng (4 Times)

(Outro)

What change is this man going to bring to this country?
Everything negative
Don't yall understand that? don't you see he toned down all his rhetoric?
He knows that Obama is not real. he's made up. And yall will soon understand That
I tried to tell yall, but yall just looked at me and laughed
Now we all are going to pay for your stupidity Four years of misery, four years of sky high fuels and everything you could Think of
Is going to go sky high because the market is crashing they don't want him
There?
Don't you see that? Yall just don't understand? How in the Hell did you guys Do this to us? Stupidity
If one million persons do a stupid thing it still makes it stupid.
Do you understand?
