About who is down and all the others from JCP who's a clown I guess age was A factor or can it be that you guys just don't give a crap
I fell on my Back temporarily I will be back on my feet and nothing can stop me I keep It real if you hate me just let me know, are you moving in let me know Something I will be ready by May 16th that's the truth I will find a new Job, I hate being left hanging No need to hurt my feelings alls you got to Do is call me

Run and call me

(Verse) I tried calling Miko but the number was bogus, so I got angry and I Felt discuss No one called asked me how I'm doing, do I need help as far as There concerned Yes life goes on and word to the God and you wonder why I Don't keep too many friends Cause people don't really care so I she'd not One tear, If the one person who cared out there And that's my nigga Ed when I make it I will remember the ones who should me love
You talk a good game Auddy you said you're responsible for a twenty year old but I don't think So Cause in reality you won't call and let me know something, I keep it Real I'm never fake That's the way that I feel inside I don't make mistakes

(Chorus) Why yall do me that just because I got laid off from JCP yall Niggas won't even run and call me Why yall do me that

From JCP yall niggas won't even run and call me

(Verse) Like I was saying Auddy you talk a good game you said that you're Responsible for a twenty year old guy But in reality you showed no Responsibility, you won't even call me let me know what's going on bro Yes

You said that I know you but I'm afraid I know you that's the problem dru
Don't you understand Where I'm coming from what I'm saying is I guess you Don't know because you're two zero and I'm three two But I know that I got To make it because I'm a strong minded black man in reality Why you do me That just because I got laid off from JCP Auddy won't call me you have no Faith in me Showed no concern about me don't you understand that inside I Feels as though I got burned It's a good thing that I learned the truth
About who is down, why you do me that I don't know
