I know a girl who lived her life for someone else
And somewhere along the way, she lost herself
She gave up all her hopes and dreams
For someone else's needs
And I know that girl, because that girl is me

So instead of standing on the sidelines
Back up on the wall
Get out in the game
It don't matter if you fall
And if you're at a standstill
Go and speed it up
Go and get you want

Don't wait
Don't hesitate longer
It won't fade
You'll only feel stronger
Don't wait
Don't wait

Don't miss
The chance to get your shine
You'll risk
The chance of a lifetime
Don't wait
Don't wait

I know it's difficult sometimes on the chase
But you gotta realize your goal, do whatever it takes
No matter what is in your way
No matter what someone may say
You need to keep on reachin', it's not that far away

Instead of standing on the sidelines
Back up on the wall
Get out in the game
It don't matter if you fall
And if you're at a standstill
Go and speed it up
Go and get you want

Don't wait
Don't hesitate longer
It won't fade
You'll only feel stronger
Don't wait
Don't wait

Don't miss
The chance to get your shine
You'll risk
The chance of a lifetime
Don't wait
Don't wait

'Cause I can't say enough
How bad it feels inside
To know life is passin' you by
So grab on to this moment
And hold it tight in your hand
'Cause it may never find you again

Don't wait
Don't hesitate longer
It won't fade
Don't wait
Don't wait

Don't miss
You'll risk
Don't wait
Don't wait
