as i was saying

i know that i'm one of the few who got away from you

steven smith , we all lose one look at you and they're suddenly covered in shrapnel too

it's true, most die in your bedroom all the time i'm getting shot oh, barrels roll and hammers drop come on now

grab that gun and we'll go drive

until there's no sound come on

let's go

i said i am driving and i am driving its true, i've got something for you when everything is quiet the ringing in our ears will be awfully violent and then there will be silence
