"Sapphires"

I want to be with you, I want to be with you
Look at me I climbed so high
Why you want to bring me down
Hear my voice I cried so loud
Why you want to hear no sound

I want to bring my desires
Higher and higher to you
But all about you disappears
And I don't know where anymore
And I don't know where anymore...

Your eyes are like two sapphires
Gems from a deadly sea
Cold stones but dark, lit no fire
Lifeless as I can see

I'm going to conquer your fears
Cut deeper and deeper through you
I want to follow those tears
But you wouldn't cry anymore
But you wouldn't cry anymore

I want to bring my desires
Higher and higher to you
But all about you disappears
And I don't know where anymore
And I don't know where anymore...
