I just want to change
I don't want to be the same
I changed my name
Come and call me once again

I'm here alone
Just another day
I want to live
All the things I want to

I just want to change
I don't want to be the same
I changed my name
Come and call me once again
Just want to change
I don't want to be the same
I changed my name
Come and call me once again

I don't want to be
What you put inside my head
I changed my ways
Call me call me what you may

I'm here
To stay
No matter what you say
I want to live
All the things I want to

I just want to change
I don't want to be the same
I changed my name
Come and call me once again
Just want to change
I don't want to be the same
I changed my ways
Call me call me what you may

I am not the same, anymore
I am not the same, anymore

No no no,
I am not the same, anymore
No no no
No no I am not the same
