

Rise The Tide "Compromised"

These feelings of obsession
Ignited from within
Action so pretentious
Much to my chagrin
And I watch the clock tick
Thoughts spinning â€˜round again
Deceptive and destructive
Lost in this whirlwind

My mind is compromised
Suffer inside, I think I'm better off alone

Slip beneath the surface
Stare up to the sky
Clouded thoughts blind me
The truth denied
Now the feeling consumes me
Find my escape
Instead I'm sinking lower
Seal my fate

My mind is compromised
Suffer inside, I think I'm better off alone
Take me down that road with nowhere to go
As I walk through the shadow of my soul
