Twisted lies, thoughts contained
Deception let out of the cage
Forgotten urge, cant explain
Follow down the path we take

I find all is left behind
The demons I've come to realize
The only place I like to hide
The feeling of my soul divide

Sink into a pool so shallow
Overflowed by tears of sorrow
Darkest days sit and wallow
Apathetic for tomorrow

The demons I've come to realize
The only place I like to cry
The feeling of my soul divide

My soul divide

I find all is left behind
As my soul divides
