Its the typical one to want out
Cause its getting critical
And the curious running away
They are the furious ones

Its the perfect disguise
Known as fear
Its a shame, its a phenomenon
Slapping their faces, and nothing away at us all

What does this mean
To have my way with you
Distance me, yeah
Discovering the truth (x2)

Arranged for something new
Cause it makes me feel good now
I get excited by the signs

As the proprietor of random sex
They're getting skeptical
Since you joined my barrade I can laugh
I'm hedging my way

It was perfect inside, now I feel
It's a shame you're a phenomenon
Shadowing faces
A medicine plan for us all

(Chorus out)
