I'm bringing back the time
Because we know you're special
And we think you know you're wrong

I'm bringing back the time
Because we know you're special
And we think you know you're wrong
Sucker face you're special

An' do you believe yourself?
It's not science
(Do you hide from your reflection?)
An' do you believe yourself to be
(Number one in the world electric?)

An' do you believe yourself?
It's not science
(Do you hide from your reflection?)
An' do you believe yourself to be
(Number one in the world electric?)

Raised by the queens your mother made
So how does that make you a human God?
And all the ladies want you
And sometimes gentlemen too
And still you think you know you're wrong
Sucker face you're special

An' do you believe yourself?
It's not science
(Do you hide from your reflection?)
An' do you believe yourself to be
(Number one in the world electric?)

An' do you believe yourself?
It's not science
(Do you hide from your reflection?)
An' do you believe yourself to be
(Number one in the world electric)

Bringing back the times
Because we know you're special

And we think you know you're wrong
Sucker face you're special
Sucker face you're special
