Its the typical ones who want out
'cause it's getting critical
And the curious running away
They are the furious ones
It's the perfect disguise
Known as fear
Its a shame it's a phenomenon
Slapping our faces and laughing away at us all...

[chorus]
What does this mean
To have my way with you
Distance me, yeah
Discovering the truth

Arrange for something new
'cause it makes me feel good now
And i get excited by the signs (excited by the signs)

As the provider of random sex
You're getting skeptical
Since you're joined the parade I can laugh
I've had you my way
It was perfect inside
Now I feel
Its a shame you're a phenomenon
Shallow embraces
The medicine plant for us all

[chorus a buncha times] out
