Tired of sitting here in my room
Waiting for you to change
With my dress and my lipstick on
You should see it on me
It's such a shame
But I know about the girl you called
The one from the park with the pink heels on
We're damaged, uneven
Broken, I'm leavin'
I'm way too fly for that, yea

I won't sit back if you want my love
You act like my love is not enough
Don't make me erase you from my phone
Cause I can always go out alone
Who says you were the first and last
I look in the mirror, know what I am
They say a love can lead you blind
Well not these eyes of mine

So I don't even care
Got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cause I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York City
I'm young, single and sexy

He'll be lonely on a Friday night
And that's just what he gets
I been calling him, calling all day
Yet he still hasn't called me yet
And when he does it will be too late, you know
I'll be at the party hanging with my mates
Who am I to sit at home
I'm too busy to wait
I'm way too smart for that

I won't sit here and go back and forth
Don't act like it's okay you just got caught

Constructors can't build this bridge back up
This is how it ends you're outta luck
Who said you were the first and last
I look in the mirror I know what I am
They say a love can lead you blind
Well not these eyes of mine

So I don't even care
Got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cause I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York City
I'm young, single and sexy

Now I can dance when I wanna
Clap my hands when I wanna
No one can say come home
Out all night long, oh yea
And I will not be bothered
If I wanna party till tomorrow
I'm sexy and free
That's how it should be
So come on, come on and do it with me oh

So I don't even care
Got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go (Fill my tank and go)
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cause I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy (Oh, oh)
London to New York City
I'm young, single and sexy (I don't even care)

So I don't even care
Got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cause I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York City
I'm young, single and sexy

Oh
Mmmm
