[pitbull]

love to hate me

i love that you hate me greatly

i appreciate your love

[rj]

if you want me now

celebrate the love that we have inside like a full moon rise right here into my arms every day i feel i can live or die

if you realize

when you walk right out my life i don't wanna lose the fight but i can't seem to forget you even though we're through

you know it ain't love, woah oh oh

why am i lost without your touch

cause this feeling is too much

you know it ain't love

[pitbull]

uh, yeah

mammi raps right

so i pulled out my d*ck and told her to speak into the mic

you love me, you hate me

those that love to hate me

ya'll can throw me in blender for talking sh*t

[rj]

'cause when you open up inside

i can't keep you from my eyes

i've been politically incorrect since the day i was born

that's why i'm til the day that i die i'm s on!

i'm ma fight for the cause when the pitt bites, you know what happens to the jaw f*ck around and it might be your big I, big pun, big [rj]

why are you so bad
this means a heart that burns the fire can make us higher
you just make me feel sad this was the best thing i could ever have thatâ€™s the word you said i was wrong i did not tell you
set me free, why me but i canâ€™t seem to stop dreaming with all these demons
you know it ainâ€™t love, woah oh oh
you know it ainâ€™t love, know it ainâ€™t love, you know it ainâ€™t love [pitbull]
chances are one in a million i hear you died in a plane crash so i guess that makes her one in a million may you rest in peace but thatâ€™s your job
destiny is somethinâ€™ that you just canâ€™t cheat if youâ€™re destined to die, itâ€™s just your time, live with it
i don't think y'all got that line [rj]
no baby
i canâ€™t keep you from my eyes you know it ainâ€™t love, yeah
said, you know it ainâ€™t love, baby donâ€™t tell me, when you know, when you know
