"You Came To Me"

Sunlight come in through my window
Wake me up, I feel so cold
All the problems laying on my pillow
The memories are getting old

You came to me
Took a burden I couldn't carry
You came to me just in time

Moonlight come in through the door
Dance across the wooden floor
It's too late tonight
I'm getting too weak
I can't fight

You came to me
Took a burden I couldn't carry
You came to me just in time

And I just need somebody else
I can't do this by myself now
I just need somebody else
I can't do this by myself now

You came to me
Took a burden I couldn't carry
You came to me just in time

Took a burden I couldn't carry
Took a burden I couldn't carry
Took a burden I couldn't carry
Just in time
Just in time
