Donâ€™t show me your guns
Donâ€™t show me your gold
Show me the reason You show me your warrior soul Nothing you can say will change my mind You simply thought it was time for war
You can talk about new order
You can talk about new borders
But please donâ€™t talk to me anymore
Looks like now what you say is OK â€˜cause youâ€™re the boss
Anything that you want is OK at any cost
We have no stipulations
You are our liberator
You came and took control
Someday weâ€™ll repay the favor
Donâ€™t show me your guns
Donâ€™t show me your gold
Show me the reason
You show me your warrior soul
Show me your warrior soul
Who has fought to keep the peace?
And who has fought to keep the keys?
The dark side of your ambition
Wonâ€™t stand the light of day
You keep changing your conditions
How can a body pay?
How then shall we appease you?
I donâ€™t think there is a way
You want all that you can take
Suffice to say
Donâ€™t show me your guns
Donâ€™t show me your gold
Show me the reason
You show me your warrior soul
Man of the cloth and man in control
Give us a prayer
To exorcise this warrior soul
