[Intro]

I don't usually do this but this is for someone really special...

You know who you are...hehe...okay...

[Verse 1]

Long blond hair with these deep blue eyes,

She's gorgeous on the out but beautiful inside,

Those cute little cheeks with these perfect pink lips that I just can't resist, that I really wanna kiss

You're my overseas girl who I wanna be with,

Give me the go and I'll come right away

'cause I'm just a flight away from seeing you today and when I land over there we can both fly away

So what do you say? Does it sound like a plan?

You're highly in demand, am I your number one fan?

I know you understand, I can be a close friend,

Can we walk hand in hand through the beach in the sand?

You light up my day with a single smile and those kisses you blow to me -- oh my god!

Sexy, sweet, shy, seductive and smart

You can bet I'll never be the one to break your heart.

[Chorus x2]

I'd go across the world just to see you girl,

We might be far apart, but we're closer than we know...

[Verse 2]

Many stupid rude guys treat her like shit,

Only wanting one thing, but she's not gonna give it to any of y'all and I'm not sounding selfish but you have to respect a real woman when you see one,

Wants to go back to school, but doesn't have the money and knows better ways to get it without selling her body,

Stay true to yourself, you have real integrity,

I mean all I say with complete sincerity,

She's misunderstood, "English not so good"

though she has the voice of a thousand angels,

On days when I catch her sing along to Beyoncé,

My mind is blown away and I don't know what to say,

I can be your teddy bear, you can take me anywhere,

Or cuddle with me while you tell me all your dreams

as you fall asleep in my arms while I hold you tight

'cause with me by your side, no more lonely nights.

[Chorus x2]

I'd go across the world just to see you girl,

We might be far apart, but we're closer than we know...

[Verse 3]

I can be your man or even yet your best friend,
With a beautiful family that will always keep you happy I can make your dreams come true, I know what it takes to have you smile at me while I watch you stand in two states,
We're free as the wind, inhale the smell of freedom,
Endless adventures, better start believing,
Let's horse back ride through the open field,
Or throw each other snow until we're both cold as steel,
We can walk outside like an ordinary couple if it does start to rain we can jump over puddles, Would you take my hand if I offered you a dance?
I would change your life completely if you gave me the chance,
Act a lady, think like a boss,
Got too much style mixed with pink lip gloss,
If you're a bird, I'm a bird, let's fly in the sky in the clouds with the planes, yeah, way up high.

[Chorus x4]

I'd go across the world just to see you girl,
We might be far apart, but we're closer than we know...

[Outro]

That's the best thing about you, that smile. Gets me every time. Hey, I thought I had the best smile, but you got me on this one hehe...I'm so glad that I met you, it's just too bad that you're on the other side of the world, you know?...but if ever we don't see each other, I really hope that we'll stay good friends and always in touch...Oh, and one more thing, stay true to yourself, keep your head up, stand tall, don't let anyone ever bring you down and tell you that you can't do anything.

Keep that chin up and most importantly, keep smiling.
