We are shooting stars.
Light up, light up the sky.

You're so afraid.
Would you walk away, this time.
Did you give enough?
Or you just give up, your chance to shine.

You've got one last round to fight.
You've got one last chance to strike.
It's the final round, I will counting down...

Straight to the top, never drop!
We're not going down tonight!
We are Shooting Stars.
Lighting up the sky so bright.

So whenever you feel you're falling.
Gonna take the hardest blow, we never let go!
'Cause e are Shooting Star, tonight.

Light up, light up.
Light up, light up.

Tick after tock.
Now it's time to walk, the line.
And you feel the fire, as it burning up, inside.

You've got one more rule to break.
'Cause there is one last step to take.
In the final round, we will count you out.

Straight to the top, never drop!
We're not going down tonight!
We are Shooting Stars.
Lighting up the sky so bright.

So whenever you feel you're falling.
Gonna take the hardest blow, we never let go!
'Cause we are Shooting Star, tonight.

We are Shooting Stars.

Light up, light up the sky.
We are Shooting Stars.
Light up, light up the sky.

Straight to the top, never drop!
We're not going down tonight!
We are Shooting Stars.
Lighting up the sky so bright.

So whenever you feel you're falling.
Gonna take the hardest blow, we never let go!
'Cause e are Shooting Star, tonight.

We are Shooting Stars.
Light up, light up the sky.
We are Shooting Stars.
Light up, light up the sky.

We are Shooting Stars.
Light up, light up the sky.
