I remember, when I saw you,
Beautiful bird, yet with any hope.

In the darkness of the night, your cry goes up to the sky.

Never lose faith, I hear your voice,
Just lift your eyes and take my hand.
There's always hope, I'm here until the end.

I remember, when I saw you,
Nobody can fathom,
the light now shining through you.
Free again to fly away, no more fear no more pain.

In the brightness of the day,
you will gently hear me say

Never lose faith, I hear your voice,
Just lift your eyes and take my hand.
There's always hope, I'm here until the end.
