No one thinks that its a good idea
But noone knows you like I do
Everybody has created this fear
So you say that we should think it through
No, I want it now,
I want it all,
I want everything...

It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything yeah
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything.

You left me stranded alone on a sunday night
Jumping off a bridge once no ones in sight
You've no idea how much pain you are
But I love you still we can go so far
You, give me a chance
No one else cares,
I want your everything, Yeah,
Now, I want you now
We'll both jump now
Jump into everything,

It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything yeah
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything.

Water, over head.
Sinking so far and soon we'll both be dead
Love, hurts, right or wrong
Baby don't you stall- just give me your all

It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
It don't matter what they say about us
It don't matter what they do at all
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything yeah
Just give me your all, I want it all
Just give me everything.
