Gotta tell them how
And they down now
Where you are?
Who you are?

You're going down loud
Let me go now
Where you are?
Who you are?

It's all out
And you're down now
Where you are?
Who you are?

You're going down loud
Let me go now
Where you are?
Who you are?

You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
But it's cool, I don't mean that that that that that
No, I don't mean that that that that that, no

Now I'm gonna say at all and all
And now I can feel it and say
You know I'm gonna feel er, no?
But I can't feel to see you go

Because you know right then
And you hold it back
You know I did it, did you on the inside
A dop tu tu ru tu ru tu
You don't know, yea

Because you want me more than you say my name
And you wanna take it and you walk away but
Me, I know
I know

You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
But it's cool, I don't mean that that that that that
I don't mean that that that that that
It's cool, I don't mean that that that that that Don't mean that that that that that
Cool, I don't mean

Uh uh uh uh uh...

(You should like beatboxing over it
You should like the beatbox
Do a little beatbox on that)

You're too cool to love me
(... Beatbox, beatbox)

You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me
But it's cool, I don't mean that that that that that
I don't mean that that that that that
I don't mean that that that that that
I don't mean that that that that that

And you say before
And you say you want it
Yea yea
And you say before
And you say before
And you say yea

Because you want me baby then you want me back
You want me baby, then it don't mean, no
Let it out oh, let it out
Let it out oh
Let it out, let it out

Don't let me dig it, didn't hold me back
You said you won't, I say I goes

You're too cool to love me
You're too cool to love me back
You're too cool to love me...
