New Empire

Verse

I am staring at battle, of who's wrong and who is right There aint' no fixing, what has happened cause no-one's gonna cease to fight

Transition

Oh oh, time to fix the shattered home
No-one, ever wants to cry alone

Chorus

I don't know where I will go, cause it seems to be
The more learned, the more there is to know, on how to try to be
A mark in the sand
of a long awaited plan

Verse

A resolution to our madness is admitting to our desires I've seen my dark side but the horizon shows my world a new empire

Transition

Oh I'll, rebuild my house from dirt and stone
No-one, ever has to be alone

Chorus

The more learned, the more there is to know, on how to
try to be
A mark in the sand
of a long awaited plan
A mark in the sand
of a long awaited plan
