These words came when you did not
But I'm too pissed to care
My eyes are tied up in that scenester's hair
Just hold me down and save yourself the trouble
'Cause tomorrow, it won't be like that

These words came when you did not
But I'm too fucked to mind
Your hands are sticky, wrapped up in mine
So kiss me now and let's get into trouble
'Cause tomorrow, it won't be so bad

She gets frustrated on the phone now
She winds the cable round her neck and calls me back
And I am sitting on my own now
But I'm not like that
I'm never gonna be like that

And all my friends are static like mathematics
And yesterday I think I finally worked them out
And later on I guess I'm gonna go up town
... until tomorrow

These words came when you did not
But I'm too pissed to care
My eyes are tied up in that scenester's hair
Let's hide in bars and joke about the old days
'Cause tomorrow, it won't be like that

She gets frustrated on the phone now
She winds the cable round her neck and calls me back
And I am sitting on my own now
But I'm not like that
I'm never gonna be like that

And all my friends are static like mathematics
And yesterday I think I finally worked them out
And later on I guess I'm gonna go up town
... until tomorrow

And all my friends are static like mathematics

And yesterday I think I finally worked them out
And later on I guess I'm gonna go up town
... until tomorrow
