[VERSE 01]

I sense a change
And i don't know what it is
All that i know is that it's coming from you
It never seemed that i've been under pressure
Just trying to figure out what to do
I don't wanna see you walk away
I want you to stay
Maybe we can work it out
But we've tried then now
I don't know what else to do
You just don't want me next to you (Oh, Oh)

[CHORUS]

Why did you leave me,
Sleeping with a broken heart ?
I just couldn't believe
How you could take it this far
were you doing alright
Moving on with your life ?
But you just left me behind
Following the same routine

You took everything that could've let me stranded
We were one, now i'm the only one that's standing
If there's anything that can repair all the damage
It's your love, girl ...
It's your love ...

This wasn't the way that I had planned it
Me and You Together was the way that I'm imagining ...
If there's anything worth waiting for til the ending
It's your love, girl ...
It's your love ...

[VERSE 02]

We've been in this position before
Don't know if you remember
You (?gave) me the world around you

Now I'm must be stupid to think anything has changed
here,
You still, when i drive (?seat)
I'm just the love (?) (?a tear)

Maybe if I wasn't so, depending on you all
You wouldn't have left
And had the chance to break my heart like this
Don't what it is that makes your love so good,
Then I can leave it alone ...

[CHORUS]

Why did you leave me,
Sleeping with a broken heart ?
I just couldn't believe
How you could take it this far
>ere You doing alright
Moving on with your life ?
But you just left me behind
Following the same routine

You took everything that could've let me stranded
We were one, now i'm the only one that's standing
If there's anything that can repair all the damage
It's your love, girl ...
It's your love ...

This wasn't the way that I had planned it
Me and You Together was the way that I'm imagining ...
If there's anything worth waiting for til the ending
It's your love, girl ...
It's your love ...

[VERSE 02]

My heart is my only source of vision
Cause my eyes are full of tears
But if I let go of all my ambitions
My visions won't be clear
And I will travel miles and miles
Until I see you finally
Said I'll be (?doing) to the apart
(?for the single me)...

[CHORUS X2]

You took everything that could've let me stranded
We were one, now i'm the only one that's standing
If there's anything that can repair all the damage
It's your love, girl ...

It's your love ...

This wasn't the way that I had planned it
Me and You Together was the way that I'm imagining ...
If there's anything worth waiting for til the ending
It's your love, girl ...
It's your love ...
