Visit "What Can I Say" on MotoLyrics.com

when i see you my hearts on fire but you never see my suffering you just smile and ask me how i am but you don't know how wonderful you are everybody thinks we were one they see you and me together friend they ask now when will be the time but they don't see you turn away from me before i hardly begun

(chorus)
what can i say you make me wait so long or how can i make you see is there a way to show you will belong together forever if only you would agree

beautiful love you make me wait so long
is loving now to show you will belong

one day you will realize just as strong my love is for you you will let me hold you in my arms then we will be true lovers perfectly
