Summertime all the time
Bitch, bitches, boys
Its going up
The heat, Sammy Adams, HA

Yea, summertime all the time
3 years back, now I'm living with my guys, so
Lower your ties, bankers lose your ties
Thank you to my fam for coming along for the ride
I got a feeling and it just won't stop
Pulling 4 or 5 girls in the goddamn box
Back to the crib in the future I'mma live
And baby we can go in but for now no kids
Strap up, yup need to find a rondo
Gotta be one around this motherfucking condo
Cops on the way, people fuckin' on the law, no
I don't give a damn, living free staying young so damn
Only job this summer is to tan
Got balls like I'm son of fucking Zan
Ex text me still
And she callin' me for favors, can't wait to chill

Cuz it's (summertime)
I don't give a damn, if I'm free staying young
(Summertime)
I don't give a damn, if I'm free staying young

I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
Got a feeling and it just won't stop

These dudes soft as boobs in tube-tops
One shit, everybody got it like draws of 2 socks
Dimes in NY, the party's on rooftops
Girls say you're too hot, get drunk take new shots in Tex[as], these days every chicky wanna sex
Come down, get lucky could be next
Getting lucky is a skill
If I get lucky get a mill
For everybody that go 'round with me

Coors lights', bonfires on the beach
Bring a bittie if you like, it's the life I preach
Couple shows and we say bamboo
Never cared about money, getting paid in booze
Jump on stage, never hear no boo's
Just scream for some cuties while they flash their boobs
Cheers baby and I hope it never end
But even if it does we gonna do it all again

Cuz it's (summertime)
I don't give a damn, if I'm free staying young
Summertime
I don't give a damn, if I'm free staying young

I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
I've got a feeling and it just won't stop
Got a feeling and it just won't stop

Yea, hope it never ends
Summertime all the time
And say..
Sammy Adams
And we... ok cool
So ok cool
Ya
I'm CMG
Get with it
Ya
We out
Summertime all the motherfucking time
Take your shirt off
