i drew this book with just us two in it..
its challanging us of our love.
we could finally be together. it is my fantasy.
all i ever wish for and more.
now

i'm hanging over the edge just to fall off this planet. we dance all night and sleep all day. its all part of this
quest to find out if our love is real.
cause i look at you all day at school.
and scream at you and act like i hate
you cause your really anoying to ours in class but i love you so much. if we could ever be
the same i would die if you ever found out.
cause i'm hanging over the edge just to fall off this planet. we dance all night

and sleep all day. its all part of this
quest to find out if our love is real.
now youve found some one lse and act like i'm invisible and act like i'm not there.
it's all apart of your trick and you don't even care. cause i love you so... if we could ever be
the same i would die if you ever found out.
cause i'm hanging over the edge just to fall off this planet. we dance all night

and sleep all day. its all part of this quest to find out if our love is real.
