Your hearts down, down in the ocean dont get burnt put on your sun lotion dont get up like the haters in the back row kick it down the front with the lovers they know
they know
well dont speak a word about the people that you dont like just spread the love, it will be alright youre always fucking it up now so why would you do that, why would you do that just shout and just shout and just shout

They never let you out at night
(freak out freak out)
And when they found out you had lied
(freak out freak out)

Stella stole your heart when you looked her in the eyes
And knew from then and on she would never lie See your life in black and white She'll always be with you
By your side by your side Well you tried so hard just to get by If this was a movie you'll be flying high All you need is a little more time
And all i need is to write one more line
One more line one more line

They never let you out at night
(freak out freak out)
And when they found out you had lied
(freak out freak out)
They never let you out at night
(freak out freak out)
And when they found out you had lied
why - hi hi hi

You wanna be a star with the girls in the cars
You wanna break all there hearts to run away

They never let you out at night

(freak out freak out)
And when they found out you had lied
(freak out freak out)
They never let you out at night
(freak out freak out)
And when they found out you had lied
They go why why why why
