I eat food to satisfy my hunger
I drink water to quench my thirst
I use my mouth and air to blow balloon up
And prick with pin to watch it burst

To make noise I use my breathe
To unlock doors I use a key
When I'm looking for something I use my eyes
I use booze to unlock me

I wear shoes so I can run
As to avoid the broken glass
I wear the pants because they suit me
And to discourage the pinchin of ass

I'll tell a joke to make you laugh
I'll close the door to have a cry
They say that changes and pain is a positive things
So have I changed since you died

To make noise I use my breathe

But I drink to get drunk
But I drink to get drunk
But I drink to get drunk
