I'm a game that you used to play
I'm a plan that you didn't lay so well
I'm the fire that burns in your mind

Close your eyes, I'm a memory
Close your eyes, I'm a memory

I'm a love you lost for a song
I'm the voice on a green telephone
I'm a day that lasted so long

Close your eyes, I'm a memory
Close your eyes, I'm a memory

I'm a dream that comes in the night
I'm a face that fades with light
I'm a tear that falls out of sight

Close your eyes, I'm a memory
Close your eyes, I'm a memory
Close your eyes, I'm a memory
