Driving down the downtown streets
When the night come along the way
Never mind, just feel a breeze
There's a fire inside me again
I need you and your beautiful eyes
I need you, I've been waiting so long tonight
I need you but I can't get away
From this state of mind

You know you're breaking my heart
(I break your heart, I break your heart)
There is no other way
You know you're breaking my heart
(I break your heart, I break your heart)
Oh-oh-oh. You know you're breaking my heart
Walking down along the beach
Tell me why you're so far away
I'm alone and I can't sleep
I am lost, I can't find my way
I need you and your beautiful eyes
I need you and your beautiful eyes
I need you, I've been waiting so long tonight
I need you but I can't get away
From this state of mind
