"The Memories Of Our Old Love"

I'm looking back at our old pictures, and I can't help but cry. I remember when we use to be so in love. What happened to those good times?

(Chorus)
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
the memories of our old love!
oh yeah
oh yeah
you'd smile at me
I'd blush and try to run away oh yeah
the memories of our old love!

Oh I remember when you'd try to get me to admit that I loved you! But I would always say no, but that was such a lie!

(Chorus)

Cause' of how you've changed I don't know if you still think about those good times anymore!!! But I don't care, because I still remember the memories of our old love.
