"Empire Of Light"

[paul]

we were nothing when alone mountain top became a throne

[deidre]

even in the darkest night we could always make a light find a shelter in the stone

[paul]

we share our secret world on fire travellers of burden miles

[both]

gotta keep moving on if we wanna stay alone

[deidre]

on this caravan tonight

my hand is your hand tonight i can see our world complete oh empire of light

pretty child, you follow me you always know what you should be even in the dark of night
show me what i need to see

oh empire of light

my hand is your hand tonight

oh empire of light..
