You returned to me so weak,
This radiation you kept now shows
And I can't believe I never knew the pain you held
And I can't believe I never knew while you were gone away

Breathe out candle
Breathe into me,

And I will never forget
The color that left your body
And I will never take anyone, or anything for granted again
We're so fragile,

Breathe out candle,
Breathe into me
We're so fragile
When will I loose my own?

So breathe out candle
When will I loose my own?

Hold on, just a little longer to me
I can't find your heartbeat
Now I can't find your heartbeat!
