I used to be convinced I knew it all
In a world that's only meant for the same
I used to think it was all in my head
But there's two sides to me, and one's always dead

I play those games, I'd play that song
Waiting for someone to just come along
And show everyone's not like me
Stuck on a train that no one can see

No one can see...

It hurts to know, hurts to know everyone changes
And secretly judges like me
It hurts to know time waits for no one
Moving to the rythm we march to the end

I'm falling for no one
I believe in nothing
No hopes, No dreams
Leaves me lost at sea

Lost at sea...

Until the day I found the one thing,

Until the day I found the one thing that means something to me
Until the day I found another soul on this train (I'm falling for no one, I believe in nothing
No hopes, no dreams, leaves me lost at sea)

Maybe it's time to change course
And her name is Hope
